Title: AM-12-1 to Res 4.: Defending the Right to Protest

Tabled by: Groen

From line 11 to 14:

The European Green Party believes that freedom of expression and peaceful assembly are among the most fundamental rights in any democratic society, as recognised by the European Convention on Human Rights. Freedom of expression allows people and civil society organisations to communicate ideas[Space], criticism and opinions, while freedom of assembly enables them to express those views collectively, publicly,
