

Vula Tsetsi

✉ paraskevi.tsetsi@europeangreens.eu

Experience

2019 - present	European Green Party , Member of the Executive Committee, re-elected in 2022
2004 - present	European Parliament , Secretary General of the Greens/EFA Group, since 2004, re-elected in 2009, 2014, 2019, 2024
1999 - 2004	European Parliament , Co-Secretary General of the Greens/EFA Group
1995 - 1999	European Parliament , Deputy Secretary General of the Green Group
1990 - 1995	European Parliament , Regional Affairs Advisor for the Green Group
1989 - 1990	European Parliament , Political Assistant to Virginio Bettini MEP (Greens, Italy)

Education & Publications

1990	Università Iuav di Venezia , Venice, Italy University Degree in Urban and Regional Planning
2013	Co-Coordination of “Green Transports in Cities; Policies for a sustainable mobility in urban centers. A European Overview.”, Papassotiriou Editions
2003	Co-Coordination of “A future for Athens; In search of urban policies for the reorganisation of Greater Conurbation of the Hellenic Capital.”, Papazissis publications
1994	“The sustainable city: analysis, outlook and proposals for urban ecology in Europe”, Franco Angeli
1993	“Environmental and Sustainable Development: the Sardinia Case”, CUEE

Personal information

- Grew up in Ioannina, Greece
- Mother tongue Greek. Fluent in English, French and Italian. Passive Knowledge of Spanish.
- Two children, Lavinia and Anders, half Swedish, half Greek.
- Hobbies: swimming (especially in the Mediterranean sea), walking/hiking, art and dancing, travelling