

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
1	AM-1-10	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	Europe needs a Green vision for crisis preparedness and building resilient, equitable, and sustainable societies that can withstand climate, health, and economic crises and turbulence. From natural disasters such as floods and wildfires to economic shocks, infrastructure collapse, and hybrid and cyber threats, crises are disrupting our societies and undermining our wellbeing with growing frequency.	From line 1 to 6: Europe and the EU needs a Green vision for crisis preparedness and building resilient, to build resilient, equitable, and sustainable societies that can withstand capable of withstanding climate, health, and economic crises and turbulence security challenges. From natural disasters such as floods and, wildfires or droughts to economic shocks, infrastructure collapse, and failures, or hybrid and cyber threats, attacks, crises events and security threats are increasingly disrupting our societies and undermining our wellbeing with growing frequency.	Compromise wording to be developed by Finnish Greens, German Greens
2	AM-6-4	PROGRESSIVE	threats, crises are disrupting our societies and undermining our wellbeing with growing frequency.	Insert from line 5 to 6: threats, crises are disrupting our societies and undermining our wellbeing with growing frequency. European societies are also increasingly threatened by authoritarianism, the erosion of democracy, and the spread of hate speech, which further undermine resilience and social cohesion.	Compromise wording to be developed by Finnish Greens, PRO, Greens/EFA European societies are also increasingly threatened by authoritarianism, the erosion of democracy, and the amplification of disinformation and divisive content including spread of hate speech, which further undermine resilience and social cohesion.

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
3	AM-7-3	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	As the changing geo-economic and geopolitical landscape impacts Europe's ability to stand up for its values, Green solutions that are ecologically, socially, and economically sustainable are needed to improve our societies' resilience and	From line 7 to 9: As the changing geo-economic and geopolitical landscape impacts challenges Europe's ability to stand up for defend its values, fundamental rights and freedoms, [Space]Green solutions that are ecologically, socially, and economically sustainable are needed to improve our societies' resilience and	CAS accepted
4	AM-10-1	Federation of Young Europeans and Greens	economically sustainable are needed to improve our societies' resilience and crisis preparedness.	Insert from line 9 to 10: economically sustainable are needed to improve our societies' resilience and crisis preparedness. Additionally, Europe must pursue strategic autonomy in defence, energy, rare-earth supply, and technology, reducing dependence on external powers such as the United States and Russia, both increasingly acting as imperial and authoritarian actors.	Compromise wording suggested by Finnish Greens and FYEG Additionally, Europe must pursue strategic autonomy in defence, energy, rare-earth supply, medicines and technologies, including digital, reducing dependence on external powers such as authoritarian Russia which has started a war of aggression and attacks against its neighbours, China which has become a systemic rival, and the United States, which is turning to be a less reliable partner in security and standing up for international law.

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
5	AM-14-1	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	on renewal, cooperation, community and unity in ensuring civilian security and the ability to manage crises. It ranges from ensuring timely processes and resources for emergency response and assistance, effective measures for preparing for crises and mitigating their impacts in advance, and building societal resilience faced with longer-term trends that impact how our societies function. Our approach prioritises human security, environmental and social sustainability, and democratic accountability, and shifts the focus beyond more traditional hard security. Beyond responding to threats and crises, we also focus on root causes, such as the climate crisis.	From line 13 to 21: on renewal, cooperation, community and unity in ensuring civilian security and the ability to manage crises. It ranges from ensuring timely processes We want to ensure that our disaster prevention and emergency aid systems are prepared and equipped to respond to current and future global challenges and threats that won't stop at national borders. This includes sufficient resources for emergency response and assistance, transnational infrastructure to build European disaster response capacities, and effective measures for preparing for crises and mitigating their impacts in advance, and building societal resilience faced with longer-term trends developments that impact how our societies function. Our approach prioritises integrates human security, with environmental and social sustainability, and democratic accountability, and shifts the focus beyond more traditional hard security exceeds an outdated security concept that focuses solely on military aspects. Beyond responding to threats and crises crisis response, we also focus on root causes, such as the climate crisis.	Compromise wording to be developed by Finnish Greens, German Greens, EGP, PRO, EQUO, (AM 5-10) on renewal, cooperation, community and unity in ensuring civilian security and the ability to manage crises. We want to ensure that our disaster prevention and emergency aid systems are prepared and equipped to respond to current and future global challenges and threats that won't stop at national borders. This includes sufficient resources for emergency response and assistance, transnational infrastructure to build European disaster response capacities, and effective measures for preparing for crises and mitigating their impacts in advance, fostering prevention strategies and building societal resilience faced with longer-term developments that impact how our societies function. Our approach integrates human security, with environmental and social sustainability, and democratic accountability, and exceeds an outdated security concept that focuses solely on military aspects. It recognises that for some European countries, especially those facing direct military threats, maintaining strong hard security remains a critical priority. Our approach is about the creation of robust solidarity networks and mutualization structures in front of diverse risks and threats. Beyond responding to threats and crisis

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
6	AM-15-1	EGP Committee	the ability to manage crises. It ranges from ensuring timely processes and resources for emergency response and assistance, effective measures for preparing for crises and mitigating their impacts in advance, and building societal resilience faced with longer-term trends that impact how our societies	Insert from line 14 to 17: the ability to manage crises. It ranges from ensuring timely processes and resources for emergency response and rapid assistance, effective measures for preparing for crises and mitigating their impacts in advance, fostering prevention strategies and building societal resilience faced with longer-term trends that impact how our societies	Compromise wording to be developed by Finnish Greens, German Greens, EGP, PRO, EQUO, (AM 5-10)
7	AM-18-1	Europa Verde - Verdi	societal resilience faced with longer-term trends that impact how our societies function. Our approach prioritises human security, environmental and social sustainability, and democratic accountability, and shifts the focus beyond more	Insert from line 17 to 19: societal resilience faced with longer-term trends that impact how our societies function. Resilience has a moral dimension. It means fighting back when we see our values being systematically disregarded. We, the European Greens, cannot afford to just outrage or protest, we have to take action. We have to turn moral distress into structured initiatives and effective actions aimed at expressing dissent while serving concrete and measurable goals. Our approach prioritises human security, environmental and social sustainability, and democratic accountability, and shifts the focus beyond more	Withdrawn

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
8	AM-19-1	PROG RESIVI E	function. Our approach prioritises human security, environmental and social sustainability, and democratic accountability, and shifts the focus beyond more traditional hard security. Beyond responding to threats and crises, we also focus on root causes, such as the climate crisis.	From line 18 to 21: function. Our approach prioritises human security, environmental and social sustainability, and democratic accountability, and shifts the focus beyond more traditional while recognising that for some European countries, especially those facing direct military threats, maintaining strong hard security remains a critical priority. [Space]	Compromise wording to be developed by Finnish Greens, German Greens, EGP, PRO, EQUO, (AM 5-10)
9	AM-20-1	EGP Committee	sustainability, and democratic accountability, and shifts the focus beyond more traditional hard security. Beyond responding to threats and crises, we also focus on root causes, such as the climate crisis.	Insert from line 19 to 21: sustainability, and democratic accountability, and shifts the focus beyond more traditional hard security. It is about the creation of robust solidarity networks and mutualization structures in front of diverse risks and threats. Beyond responding to threats and crises, we also focus on root causes, such as the climate crisis.	Compromise wording to be developed by Finnish Greens, German Greens, EGP, PRO, EQUO, (AM 5-10)
10	AM-21-1	PROG RESIVI E	traditional hard security. Beyond responding to threats and crises, we also focus on root causes, such as the climate crisis.	Insert from line 20 to 21: traditional hard security. Beyond responding to threats and crises, we also focus on root causes, such as the climate crisis. our dependency on fossil resources and imperialistic expansionism policies of some countries.	Compromise wording to be developed by Finnish Greens, German Greens, EGP, PRO, EQUO, (AM 5-10)

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
11	AM-24-1	Federation of Young Europeans and Greens	investing in local services and their resilience, and building the necessary infrastructure capable of withstanding various shocks.	Insert from line 23 to 24: investing in local services and their resilience, and building the necessary infrastructure capable of withstanding various shocks. This includes nature-based resilience measures that also strengthen territorial defence, such as wetland restoration, erosion prevention and biodiversity recovery.	Compromise wording to be developed by FYEG and EQUO [original wording found to be fine after discussions]
12	AM-26-1	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	Recognises the need for European cooperation and policies to build safer and more resilient societies. The EU and neighbouring partners must be	From line 26 to 27: Recognises the need for European cooperation and policies transnational infrastructure to build safer and more resilient societies. The EU and neighbouring partners must be	CAS accepted as amended From line 26 to 27: Recognises the need for European cooperation, policies and transnational infrastructure to build safer and more resilient societies. The EU and neighbouring partners must be
13	AM-7-1	Miljöpartiet de gröna	volunteering structures to build resilience and contribute to assistance and recovery in a crisis. Governments must work together with civil society and non-governmental organisations to build processes for	Insert from line 31 to 32: volunteering structures to build resilience and contribute to assistance and recovery in a crisis. A top-down approach risks ignoring the realities on the ground. Governments must work together with civil society and non-governmental organisations to build processes for	CAS accepted

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
14	AM-7-2	Miljöpartiet de gröna	volunteering structures to build resilience and contribute to assistance and recovery in a crisis. Governments must work together with civil society and non-governmental organisations to build processes for	Insert from line 32 to 33: volunteering structures to build resilience and contribute to assistance and recovery in a crisis. Governments must work together with local and regional authorities , civil society and non-governmental organisations to build processes for	CAS accepted
15	AM-31-1	EGP Committee	Emphasises the need for strong community-based safety strategies and volunteering structures to build resilience and contribute to assistance and recovery in a crisis. Governments must work together with civil	Insert from line 30 to 32: Emphasises the need for strong community-based safety strategies and volunteering structures to build resilience and contribute to civil protection , assistance and recovery in a crisis. Governments must work together with civil	CAS accepted
16	AM-32-1	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	volunteering structures to build resilience and contribute to assistance and recovery in a crisis. Governments must work together with civil society and non-governmental organisations to build processes for cooperation and contribution. Governments should use the expertise and capacity of these organisations and their volunteers.	From line 31 to 35: volunteering structures to build resilience and contribute to assistance and recovery in a crisis [Space]situation . Governments must work together support and cooperate [Space] with civil society and non-governmental organisations to build establish European networks and processes for cooperation and contribution dissemination . Governments should use the expertise and capacity experience of these organisations and their volunteers in their decision-making processes .	CAS accepted

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
17	AM-36-1	PROGRESIVIE	Calls for strong civic and digital literacy education and information efforts to ensure that people can recognise and prevent the spread of mis-	Insert from line 36 to 37: Calls for investments in the information landscape in order to strengthened measures to prevent and combat misinformation and to build defence and resilience systems against foreign influence activities and disinformation, as well as strong civic and digital literacy education and information efforts to ensure that people can recognise and prevent the spread of mis-	CAS accepted as amended Wording proposed by Progresivie, accepted by German Greens, EGP Committee (AM17, 18): Calls for strengthening of systemic measures against foreign information manipulation and interference, including robust civic and digital literacy frameworks and public information efforts, to enhance the resilience of our societies against mis- and disinformation, as well as ensuring strong protection for journalists, whistleblowers and the democratic civic space.
18	AM-37-1	EGP Committee	Calls for strong civic and digital literacy education and information efforts to ensure that people can recognise and prevent the spread of mis- and disinformation.	Insert from line 36 to 38: Calls for strong civic and digital literacy education and information efforts, in order to foster critical thinking among citizens and ensure that people can recognise and prevent the spread of mis- and disinformation, as well as the protection of journalists, whistleblowers and civic space.	Covered by proposal in AM17

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
19	AM-41-1	Groen	shocks and develop early warning systems. We must guarantee access to water, electricity, heat and other basic supplies during crises. Governments must ensure necessary reserves to guarantee the supplies in	Insert from line 40 to 42: shocks and develop early warning systems. We must guarantee access to water, food , electricity, heat and other basic supplies during crises. Governments must ensure necessary reserves to guarantee the supplies in	CAS accepted
20	AM-41-2	EGP Committee	shocks and develop early warning systems. We must guarantee access to water, electricity, heat and other basic supplies during crises. Governments must ensure necessary reserves to guarantee the supplies in emergencies. Our energy supply must be built on sustainable and modern solutions that can survive shocks and support fast recovery e.g. from blackouts.	Insert from line 40 to 45: shocks and develop early warning systems. We must guarantee access to water, electricity, heat and other basic supplies during crises. Contingency plans must be suitably designed to ensure their smooth implementation, while mobility and the required logistics for the transport of the necessary goods needs to be ensured, including alternative routes to bypass damaged infrastructure. Governments must ensure necessary reserves to guarantee the supplies in emergencies. Our energy supply must be built on sustainable and modern solutions, including modular network design , that can survive shocks and support fast recovery e.g. from blackouts. Decentralised energy grids and micro-grids should be prioritised to prevent blackout cascades.	CAS accepted

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
22	AM-48-1	Federation of Young Europeans and Greens	resilience, including emergency response, healthcare and social services to ensure availability also in crises. The EU should coordinate European supply algorithms, common procurement and coordinated stockpiling while	Insert from line 47 to 49: resilience, including emergency response, healthcare and social services to ensure availability also in crises. Our civil-defence funding must be reinforced through funding, including public shelters, emergency training, and crisis communication systems throughout the EU. The EU should coordinate European supply algorithms, common procurement and coordinated stockpiling while	Compromise wording to be developed (AM 22, 23) FYEG, Finnish, German Greens resilience, including emergency response, healthcare and social services to ensure availability also in crisis situations . Our civil protection must be reinforced through funding throughout the EU, including for public shelters, emergency training, and crisis communication systems . The EU should coordinate European supply algorithms, common procurement and coordinated stockpiling while also facilitating cooperation. Designated funding like RescEU and the Interreg programme should enable regions and communities to cooperate transnationally and build shared infrastructure.
23	AM-48-2	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	resilience, including emergency response, healthcare and social services to ensure availability also in crises. The EU should coordinate European supply algorithms, common procurement and coordinated stockpiling while also facilitating cooperation through programmes such as RescEU.	From line 47 to 50: resilience, including emergency response, healthcare and social services to ensure availability also in crises situations . The EU should coordinate European supply algorithms, common procurement and coordinated stockpiling while also facilitating cooperation through programmes such as RescEU. Designated funding like RescEU and the Interreg programme should enable regions and communities to cooperate transnationally and build shared infrastructure.	Covered by proposal in AM 22

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
№	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
24	AM-50-1	Federation of Young Europeans and Greens	also facilitating cooperation through programmes such as RescEU. Highlights the need for nature-based solutions to prevent and mitigate threats. For example, nature-based solutions can help prevent flooding and erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and restoring wetlands can act as barriers for defence purposes.	From line 50 to 54: 6. Supports the creation of a European common defence force through harmonised defence budgets and shared capabilities, explicitly invoking Article 42(7) TEU as the legal basis for mutual defence. Highlights the need for nature-based solutions to prevent and mitigate threats. For example, nature-based solutions can help prevent flooding and erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and restoring wetlands can act as barriers for defence purposes. 7. Highlights the need for nature-based solutions to prevent and mitigate threats. For example, nature-based solutions can help prevent flooding and erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and restoring wetlands can act as barriers for defence purposes.	Withdrawn
25	AM-51-1	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	Highlights the need for nature-based solutions to prevent and mitigate threats. For example, nature-based solutions can help prevent flooding and erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and	From line 51 to 53: Highlights the need for nature-based solutions substantial investments and protective measures for climate and environmental protection, to prevent and mitigate threats and natural disasters. For example, nature-based solutions can help prevent flooding and erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and	CAS accepted

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
№	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
26	AM-52-1	Ecolo	Highlights the need for nature-based solutions to prevent and mitigate threats. For example, nature-based solutions can help prevent flooding and erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and	From line 51 to 53: Highlights the need for nature-based solutions to prevent and mitigate threats while local policies, in many places, still replace green areas with concrete worsening the ability to combat the impact of climate change in certain neighborhoods. For example, nature Nature-based solutions can, in the other hand, help prevent flooding and erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and	CAS accepted
27	AM-54-1	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and restoring wetlands can act as barriers for defence purposes.	Insert from line 53 to 54: erosion, rebuilding biodiversity helps promote healthier environments, and restoring wetlands can act as barriers for defence purposes. 7. Those who cause damage must be held responsible. Stricter legislation is needed to hold corporations and companies accountable for actions that harm the environment and the climate. Preventive measures like the EU Nature Restoration Law, must be expanded and consistently applied throughout the EU.	CAS accepted

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
28	AM-55-1	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	Recognises that resilience also means a resilient economy that works within planetary limits. Economic resilience requires strengthening our	Insert from line 55 to 56: Recognises that resilience also means a resilient and sustainable economy that works within planetary limits. Economic resilience requires strengthening our	CAS accepted
29	AM-61-1	Bündnis 90/Die Grünen	Demands investment in cybersecurity and the information landscape. These need to be safeguarded through investment in open-source digital infrastructure to defend our democratic institutions from manipulation and cyber threats without compromising civil rights.	From line 60 to 63: Demands investment in cybersecurity and the information landscape. These need to be safeguarded through investment in {Space} independent, open-source digital infrastructure to defend our democratic institutions from against manipulation and cyber threats {Space} [Space] without compromising civil rights. The EU must adapt public procurement procedures to ensure investments in European companies and networks, thereby decreasing dependencies on the US and other countries with weak safeguards for data and customer protection.	Wording proposed by German Greens and agreed by FYEG, Groen, Finnish From line 60 to 63: Demands investment in cybersecurity and the information landscape. These need to be safeguarded through investment in independent, open-source digital infrastructure to defend our democratic institutions from against manipulation and cyber threats, without compromising civil rights. This includes building a sovereign European tech industry and ensuring key data remain stored within EU territory. The EU must adapt public procurement procedures to ensure investments in European companies and networks, thereby decreasing dependencies on the US and other countries with weak safeguards for data and customer protection.

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
30	AM-63-1	Federation of Young Europeans and Greens	infrastructure to defend our democratic institutions from manipulation and cyber threats without compromising civil rights.	Insert from line 62 to 63: infrastructure to defend our democratic institutions from manipulation and cyber threats without compromising civil rights. This includes building a sovereign European tech industry and ensuring key data remain stored within EU territory.	Covered by proposal in AM29
31	AM-45-1	Groen Links	dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and respect for human rights.	Insert from line 63: dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and respect for human rights. 10. Recognises that marginalized groups, such as women and LGBTQIA+ people are disproportionately affected by crises such as climate-related disasters, economic shocks, and conflicts, which intensify existing gendered and structural inequalities. All EU crisis-preparedness policies must therefore centre feminist and intersectional principles, by integrating the specific needs, rights, and perspectives of these groups into all stages of prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery.	Compromise wording to be developed by Finnish Greens, GL, Romanian Greens, G/EFA, Groen 10. Recognises that people who face socio-political disadvantages more often such as women, LGBTQIA+ people, the youth, and the elderly are disproportionately affected by crises such as climate-related disasters, economic shocks, and conflicts, which intensify existing gendered and structural inequalities. All EU crisis-preparedness policies must therefore centre feminist and intersectional principles, by integrating the specific needs, rights, and perspectives of these groups into all stages of prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery.

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
32	AM-70-1	PROG RESIVI E	dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and respect for human rights.	Insert from line 69 to 70: dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and respect for human rights. This includes strengthening the International Criminal Court and international human rights mechanisms. A strong Europe must also recognise the strategic importance of the Baltic region and uphold the central role of international law in the European security architecture.	CAS accepted as amended Insert from line 69 to 70: dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and respect for human rights. This includes strengthening the International Criminal Court and international human rights mechanisms. A strong Europe must also recognise the strategic importance of the EU Eastern border and uphold the central role of international law in the European security architecture.

Amendments to R2: Green solutions for more crisis-prepared, resilient and safer societies
No	Lines	Tabled by	Original text	Proposed amendment	CAS decision
33	AM-70-2	Ecolo	dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and respect for human rights.	Insert from line 69 to 70: dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law, and respect for human rights. 10. Demands the EU to reinforce the RescEU wildfire fleet through more resources and greater cooperation and solidarity between Member States. The EU must possess a supranational wildfire fleet to intervene quickly in case of large wildfires unmanageable by Member States alone. These waterbombing aircrafts should be built in Europe to feed the demand for European products and stimulate the European industry, we call on local requirement criteria in public procurement.	Wording proposed by ECOLO & Greens/EFA 10. Demands the EU to reinforce the Union Civil Protection Mechanism, in particular the RescEU wildfire fleet, through more resources and greater cooperation and solidarity between Member States. The EU must possess a supranational wildfire fleet to intervene quickly in case of large wildfires unmanageable by Member States alone. These waterbombing aircrafts should be built in Europe to feed the demand for European products and stimulate the European industry, we call on local requirement criteria in public procurement.