Since April 2023, the conflict between the Sudanese Armed Forces (SAF) and the	Insert from line 9 to 10: During and after the 2019 Sudanese Revolution, various civil actors have cooperated in order to push towards a democratically elected civil government. Their efforts were set back by a military coup in 2021 led by the current leaders of the SAF and the RSF.	It is important to recognize that there are many actors interested in a peaceful, democratic country. It is important to recognize that both the SAF and RSF do not hold any democratic legitimacy.

6	AM-23-1	Green Party of England and Wales	stigma, starvation as a method of warfare, widespread destruction of civilian infrastructure, and obstruction of humanitarian aid.	Insert from line 22 to 23: stigma, starvation as a method of warfare, widespread destruction of civilian infrastructure, and obstruction of humanitarian aid. These violations, which reflect a deliberate strategy to terrorise populations and dismantle community structures, collectively meet the legal threshold for genocide under the Rome Statute and the Genocide Convention.
7	AM-26-2	Green Party of England and Wales	degradation, and gold mining controlled by armed groups—are exacerbating the conflict.	Insert from line 25 to 26: degradation, and gold mining controlled by armed groups—are exacerbating the conflict and entrenching violence as communities compete over increasingly scarce resources.
8	AM-26-3	Die Grünen - Die Grüne Alternative	degradation, and gold mining controlled by armed groups—are exacerbating the conflict.	Insert from line 25 to 26: degradation, and gold mining controlled by armed groups—are exacerbating the conflict. The interference of foreign actors and geopolitical interests, such as the provision of military equipment to the fighting parties, in particular the support of the UAE to the RSF, has prolonged the fighting and aggravated its consequences.	The fighting would not be as intense without foreign financial and military support. The UAE is mentioned in the specific demands but not in the contextualization of the conflict.
9	AM-36-1	Green Party of England and Wales	facilities	Insert after line 36: Reject the establishment of a parallel governing authority in areas controlled by the RSF.
