Tabled by:	Les Écologistes - Europe Ecologie Les Verts

Insert from line 42 to 43:

sitting on European soil – they must be built, owned and run by Europeans, with strong data protection and cybersecurity. A third building block must be digital sufficiency: reducing unnecessary data processing and storage, promoting energy-efficient digital services and ensuring that the development of resource-intensive applications, particularly generative AI, responds to demonstrated societal needs and delivers genuine public value.
