Title: AM-24-1 to Res 4.: Defending the Right to Protest

Tabled by: Federation of Young European Greens

From line 22 to 24:

2. These rights protect the freedom to organise and participate in protests, demonstrations, rallies, strikes, vigils, and pickets, without fear of ~~government~~ interference, censorship, or retaliation, whether by public authorities or private actors.

Explanation / Comment

Public participation is increasingly suppressed not only by governments but also by private actors, e.g. through abusive lawsuits (SLAPPs). The right to protwst must protect people from both.
