Title: AM-67-2 to Res 4.: Defending the Right to Protest

Tabled by: Bündnis90/Die Grünen

Demands

From line 67 to 68:

5. Encouraging Green ~~leaders~~representatives to observe ~~or participate~~peaceful protests, to engage in ~~protests~~dialogue with protesters and ~~acts of civil disobedience;~~to defend the right to protest, while remaining bound by the law

Explanation / Comment

For members of parliament, government officials, and public servants of the German Green Party, encouraging lawbreaking is unacceptable. Monitoring and dialogue are standard practice, such as parliamentary observation of demonstrations. This also protects the party from attacks.
