Insert from line 82 to 83:

than any other energy source, renewables helped the EU economy save 100 billion euros between 2021 and 2023 and bring down energy bills for households.

At least 50% of ownership for renewable energy projects should be guaranteed local.

Explanation / Comment

One of our basic goals is to have bottom-up local influence and economy.

Therefore, with the upcoming increase of sustainable energy production these units should be in the hands of "we, the people". So, a certain percentage of such ownership should be officially guaranteed, only then is a real people's/prosumers network for sustainable energy possible; although preferably the percentage should be much higher.
