Draft text

From line 95 to 98:

without setting precedence. Member states decide for themselves about NATO membership. ~~The EU has a collective duty to safeguard its security from the oscillations of US politics and create the conditions to allow the EU to freely determine its engagement in the rapidly shifting geopolitical environment.~~ A strong transatlantic relationship requires partners on both sides of the Atlantic who are able and willing to act. That is why the EU must strengthen its efforts to develop its own security and defence capacities.
